

CARDINIA LEISURE SPORTS HEAT POLICY

Updated 18 October 2017

Basketball

- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 30 degrees 2 minutes per half will be removed.
- The on-court referee must call a time out at the earliest possible time at the midpoint of that half/quarter.
- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 40 degrees' games must be called off.
- If a game has passed the half time break the team in front will be declared the winner. If this game has not passed this point, then the game will be declared a draw.

Netball

- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 30 degrees 1 minute per quarter will be removed.
- The break between quarters will be extended by 1 minute for each break period.
- The Centre position shall be given the option to swap positions once per quarter. This can be done via on court swap of positions or substitution off the bench.
- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 40 degrees' games must be called off.
- If a game has passed the half time break the team in front will be declared the winner. If this game has not passed this point, then the game will be declared a draw.

Floorball

- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 30 degrees 2 minutes per period will be removed.
- Once the on-court temperature (as measured by the digital display above Court 4) passes 40 degrees' games must be called off.
- If a game has passed the end of the 2nd period break the team in front will be declared the winner. If this game has not passed this point, then the game will be declared a draw.

Be smart! Beat the heat!

- Drink plenty of water before, during and after playing sport.
- Be sure to warm up before and cool down after exercise
- Pace yourself during the game
- Call substitutions frequently throughout the game